

INTERNATIONAL WORKSHOP

Port Engineering and Maritime Works

- Project work in small groups of students tutored by a team of experienced engineers / researchers.
- Elaboration of a bid proposal to a realistic tender.
- Topics : Port planning, Design of coastal structure and ports terminals, ...
- Hands-on experience with state of the art simulation software.

8 ECTS

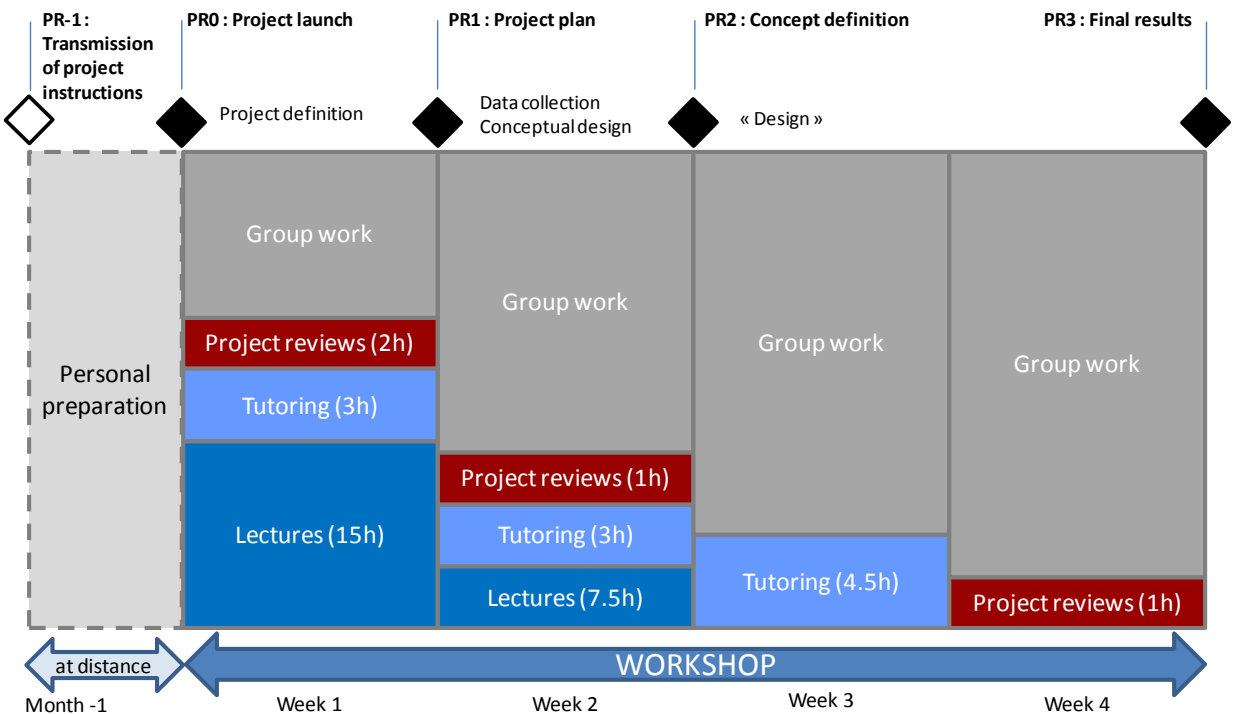

From the 30th May to the 24th June 2016

Application deadline : 15th february 2016

Contact : +33 (0)2 31 46 23 12 / international@esitc-caen.fr

www.esitc-caen.fr

- Open to students that have completed three years of higher education in Civil Engineering or a related field.
- A tailored mix of lectures, tutored group sessions and independent group work over a period of 4 weeks in June 2016.
- Working language English.
- Project teams composed of students from several different European civil engineering schools.
- Assessment by three project reviews.
- 3 Technical visits in order to illustrate the lectures.
- Successful project awarded with 8 ECTS credit points.

Document non contractuel : novembre 2015